MLK-NORTHEAST OHIO MOREHOUSE/SPELMAN COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

TITLE: DEAR AMERICA . . . LOVE, DR. KING

YOU are Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Sitting on the front porch of Heaven, you brood deeply about what you have seen occurring in the United States of America in recent years. Compose a letter to the American people in which you state a CALL TO ACTION that will lead this generation to strive for the goal of the Beloved Community.

Be sure to define Beloved Community, keeping in mind that several generations have been born since you transitioned from Time into Eternity. For them you are an historic figure about whom some people speak in hushed, reverential tones, while others twist your message to fit their purposes and suit their needs.

Step back into yourself. Skip two lines and write a brief paragraph that explains what you are willing to do to move this society closer to the Beloved Community. Begin your final paragraph with: I, (your full name), and continue your final paragraph.
